HoopAdemics, a well established basketball camp, prides itself on providing the best instruction in the fundamentals and strategies of the game taught by some of the finest coaches that Lincoln has to offer. Staff this year will include Kent Crooks (head boys basketball at Lincoln), Jay Kelley (asst. boys basketball at Lincoln), Jon Bruckner (head girls coach at LMS), Ron Payette (asst. girls coach at LMS), Tim Carpentier (asst. girls coach at Cumberland High), Dave Enos (former head girls coach at Lincoln High) as well as several collegiate and high school instructors.

This summer, save $15.00 by having your completed registration mailed in by July 27th. Also, if a returning camper brings a "new" friend to camp for the first time, you will have earned a free week of lunches at camp.
